They paid close attention to the kitchen where everyone always gathers. “We wanted a really nice, large kitchen,” says Julie. She enlisted Sandy Sillaots, owner of Hickory Lane Kitchens, to help design and create the culinary space, with its large island, Caesarstone countertops and porcelain backsplash of Graphite Bloom Deco tiles. “She did a phenomenal job,” says Julie. “The kitchen cabinets are amazing.”

Mason Dewayan Simms masterfully shaped two tonnes of granite into a large, welcoming fireplace at the west end of the great room. “It was amazing to watch them build it,” Doug says.

Reminders of earlier generations inhabit the cottage. On a wall of the sunroom is Julie’s father’s fishing map showing local lakes, encircled with different colours representing the species of fish that he caught.
